Webinar on 'Gandhi Ji and the Idea of People's Democracy'

30th January, 2023

Continuing with the celebrations under Patriotic week, Department of Sociology organized a webinar on 'Gandhi Ji and the Idea of People's Democracy'. The keynote speaker was Mr. Randhir Gautam, Assistant Professor, Gandhian School of Democracy and Socialism ITM, Gwalior. Before starting the lecture, a two-minute silence was observed in the college campus. While discussing the topic, the keynote speaker said that Gandhiji's ideal is stateless democracy and to develop it, the democratic system has to be taken towards the direction of development at individual, community, social and national level. He said that democracy should be everywhere, whether it is a school or a classroom, the spirit of democracy should be visible everywhere. He said that we can establish Ram Rajya by adopting our moral values and we have to make efforts for this on our own. College Principal appreciated the efforts of Dr. Rama Gandotra, Head Sociology department for organising this webinar.
