5	Dr. Rama Gandotra	Guru Nanak: Ek Yug Pursh	Guru Nanak- A Social Reformer	 Guru Nanak - A Social Reformer *Dr. Rama Gandotra ABSTRACT Guru Nanak's teachings, embodying all facets of society and life, transcend social, religious, color, creed, ethnic, and national barriers and demarcations. Guru Nanak was an ardent proponent of human's active participation to emancipate one-self and others suffering from inequality, suppression and denial of justice. Guru Nanak, committed to the cause of social transformation was engaged in the process of motivating people towards greater social consciousness. Introduction Guru Nanak, the harbinger of new era, emanated a comprehensive philosophy of universal nature which has relevance for all times. Guru Nanak's teachings are immensely beneficial to all human beings because these teachings, embodying all facets of society and life, transcend social, religious, color, creed, ethnic and national barriers and demarcations. He did not permit himself to be labeled or denominated and nor did he allow his name to become the channel and agency of a dominant and prevailing denomination. Guru Nanak lived what he preached and his whole life is a reflection of his philosophy. He lived among the people, he inter-acted and dialogued with them and he understood their psychology; that's why his perceptive micro and macro vision produced profound and extensive analysis of situations and problems. Guru Nanak felt concerned with the prevailing socio-religio-political order as he witnessed the erosion of moral values in the every sphere of life. He depicted the situation ruthlessly but vision in order to awaken people. Everybody has the fundamental rights to possess all human rights and, if need be, to assert and strive to eradicate invidious distinctions, unjust divisions, discrimination and inequities (whether caste system, economic class system, racism, female inequality, and any type of discrimination based on, race, ethnicity, nationality, color, language and belief system). Guru Nanak was an ardent proponent of human's active participation to emancipate one-self and others *Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, Pt. Mohan Lal S.D.
