Importance of Mother tongue punjabi

Punjab Day was celebrated by the History department with fervor. Students presented powerpoint presentations and spoke about the importance of Punjab, the land of five rivers. The students talked about the history of the state and its rich literature and customs. They paid a tribute to their mother tongue Punjabi and inspired everyone to read Punjabi literature that not just entertains but also educates and binds us firmly to our roots. A documentary on Punjab History and culture was also shown to the students. Principal Dr. Neeru Sharma said we need to educate our children about the rich cultural and legacy of the state they belong to, so they are not just proud of being born here but also work towards making it a better place.”
